

Monday, March 1

The office of the Idaho Outfitters & Guides License Board was moved from Mountain Home to 1530 Idaho St., Boise, Idaho. This was necessary with the termination of Mr. Jay Taylor's contract and with the advice of Legislators, Attorney General's office and the concensus of the Outfitters & Guides Association. The equipment was loaded into Mr. Tice's pickup and station wagon and hauled to Boise by Al Tice, Martin Capps, and Larry Garner.

Mr. Wm. Clements of the Idaho Bureau of Public Accounts was at Mountain Home to give a complete and final audit of License Board accounts and to list the office equipment that belongs to the Board and to okay their removal.

The mailing address of the Idaho Outfitters & Guides License Board was changed to Capitol Building, Boise, Idaho. A transfer card was to be turned in to the Mountain Home Post Office so that all Board mail would be forwarded to this address.

Mrs. Lois Merritt of Boise was employed at a beginning salary of $225 per month. Office hours are to be from 9A.M. to 5P.M. five days a week with the office closed on legal holidays. She was on hand to help set up files and equipment.

A second hand desk was purchased for $98.00 and added to the office equipment.

Check #246 for $272.90 was written to Jay Taylor for February expenses; #247 for $10.80 to W. H. Clements for auditor travel and meals; #248 for $98.00 to Fairview Furniture for metal office desk.

Tuesday, March 2

Capps and Renshaw attended legislative sessions. Later they met with Harold Hanson and George Dovel and discussed their problems. Issued Outfitters License to Lon S. Jarvis.

Wednesday, March 3

Martin Capps and Jim Renshaw checked through files with Lois Merritt. Had telephone installed, set up Petty Cash Account and purchased miscellaneous office supplies. Had Thermofax Copier checked and demonstrated.

Thursday, March 4

Capps and Renshaw met to discuss make-up of new application forms. Renshaw returned home and Capps attended legislative sessions.

Friday, March 5

Capps attended legislature.